POSSIBILITY OF TWO GOVERNORS

New York Legislature Experiences an Unique Problem Today.

ACTING EXECUTIVE.

Should Sulzer be Deposed Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn Will Fill Out Term.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12. — With Governor Sulzer about to be impeached when the legislature reconvened today, New York state faces the possibility of having two rival governors.

By the State constitution, the lieutenant-governor, Martin H. Glynn, becomes acting governor automatically when the resolution of impeachment passes, and he remains acting governor until the end of the trial. Should the governor be vindicated he assumes office. Should he be ousted, the lieutenant governor fills out the term.

Friends of Governor Sulzer say that he refuses to recognize the authority of the extraordinary legislature to impeach him, and will ignore its action should Murphy be successful in today's test of strength. Sulzer might remain in the executive office, issuing his orders regardless of the legislature, and Lieutenant Governor Glynn would issue rival orders from his own office.

When the assembly met today the Levy resolution, calling for the impeachment of Sulzer, was called up, and one of the bitterest political and legal fights in the history of New York, was precipitated. Never before did the state of New York try to impeach a governor, and that it will be a fight to a finish is admitted on both sides.

On the one side is Charles F. Murphy, boss of Tammany, fighting "like a tiger" for his political life and for the control of the Empire State Democracy. Pitted against him is Sulzer, fighting for his reputation and his seat in the "people's house," but—and this is of far more concern to Murphy and his cohorts—backed up by all of the enemies of Tammany Hall, whether or not they especially approve of the governor.

There was a bare chance today that the vote on the Levy resolution might be deferred.

COUNCIL FILLS VACANCIES.

New Officers elected for Alexandria Trades Council.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Alexandria Trades Council was held in its hall in the Alexandria National Bank building last night. From the standpoint of numbers present and the amount of interest and enthusiasm shown, the meeting was one of the best of the year.

The Labor Day committee submitted a very encouraging report with reference to the coming celebration. The chairman of the committee stated that practically all arrangements had been made for a big celebration. A program of athletic and other sports being arranged and speakers of prominence had been invited for the occasion. The committee expected to have a large crowd at the Dyke on Labor Day.

Three vacancies in the officers of the body were filled by the election of the following:

Howard T. Colvin, financial secretary-treasurer.

F. W. Deeton, Sr., and Geo. M. Cragg, trustees.

The meeting last night was enlivened by a stirring address by Mr. W. H. Anglin, of the Washington Central Trades and Labor Union. Mr. Anglin spoke along strictly trade union lines and was listened to with close attention by those present.

Helper Electrocuted.

Norfolk, Neb., Aug. 12.—James Coombs, 16 years old, engineer helper in the electric light plant here was electrocuted when he rolled from a bench on which he was sleeping and fell on a live wire near the switchboard.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Latest reports from the Canal Zone announce that as the result of the prospective substitution of dredges for steam shovels in the excavation of the famous Culebra cut, the canal may be ready for shipping by next December. Even earlier than that light draft vessels are likely to be passing through the waterway, for, as the greater part of the canal prism already has been cut to its final depth, small vessels probably can navigate it safely within a few days after October 10th next, when the Gamboa dike is to be blown up, thus admitting to the Culebra level the great store of water in Gantum Lake.

Holding her dress a little too high to avoid water as she crossed Main street, in Uniontown, Pa., yesterday, Mattie Pierce was arrested when she revealed a beautiful pearl handle revolver of large calibre in a holster fastened around her leg at the knee. When placed in the woman's department at the lock-up she sent for several of her friends, one of whom deposited $25 for her release.

Dr. W. J. Clontz, the leading physician and wealthiest man in Alexander about eight miles from Asheville, N. C., was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by O. M. West, a mail carrier, the quarrel growing out of alleged attentions on the part of Dr. Clontz to West's wife. West gave himself up.

Thirteen men were killed yesterday by an unexpected slide at the Porto Bello quarry, which completely buried a steam shovel in the neighborhood in which they were working.

Harold S. Warner, a wealthy real estate man, and Charles Calkins, his father-in-law, were killed yesterday near Buffalo, N. Y., when their automobile was struck by a train.

Bishop William Tufnell Sabine, D. D., of the Reformed Episcopal Church, died yesterday at his home on Madison Avenue, New York. He was 74 years old. The bishop suffered a stroke of apoplexy several weeks ago.

Because her husband opposed the marriage of their daughter, 15 years old, to a Hebrew, Mrs. Sophia Stitz crept into the bedroom of the girl in their home at 158 Fifteenth street, West New York, N. J., before she was awake yesterday morning and turned on both gas jets. Six hours later, when the girl was dead, the mother entered the gas filled-room, closed the door behind her, and laid down beside her daughter's body. When the father, Albert Stitz, returned to the home last night from his work he broke the door open and found his wife and daughter dead.

The police of Rome yesterday prevented the posting of the manifesto issued in Milan calling for a general strike. The strike began in Rome in a small way, but it is expected to become more general today, when a monster meeting of workmen will be held.

Placing two sticks of dynamite in his vest pocket, Henry Boldt went to the hill in the rear of his home in Altoona, Pa., last night, lighted a fuse, and calmly awaited the explosion that blew off one arm and cut his body almost in two. Windows in nearby residences were broken by the shock of the explosion. Despondency over long continued illness is believed to have led Boldt to take his life. He was 57 years old, and a former employe at the railroad shops here.

Plans for establishing a ferry service across the Anacostia river from the foot of South Capitol street, Washington, to a point which can be conveniently connected by roads with Hillsdale, Barry Farm, Giesboro, and other points in the vicinity, were discussed Friday night at a meeting at 314 Pennsylvania avenue southeast. According to the promoters, the ferry will save 3 miles and afford a direct route to Fort Foote, Fort Washington, Indian Head proving grounds, Blue Plains Asylum, and other places which are now reached by a circuitous route.

Gen. Edward F. Jones, who commanded the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment in its passage through Baltimore on April 19, 1861, died at his home in Binghampton, N. Y., yesterday, aged 85.

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN WASHINGTON HOTEL

Guests Experience Rude Awakening at Early Hour.

SOON EXTINGUISHED.

Blaze Originated in Kitchen. Damages $3,000—Seven Engines and Three Trucks Respond.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Guests at the Ebbitt House came down to breakfast this morning to find the hotel in possession of the firemen.

A blaze which originated in the kitchen climbed rapdly through an air shaft in the rear of the building to the roof, causing an estimated damage of $3,000. None of the employes or guests were injured.

The fire was dicovered about 6:45 a. m., by Miss Anna Robinson, the housekeeper. Efforts were made by employes to extingush the flames with chemicals, but fidding the blaze growing beyond control, a "still alarm" was telephond to headquarters by Carl Myers, the steward. This way followed b ya second alarm turned in at the box at Fouteenth and F streets.

Seven engine an dthree truck companies responded, and the fire was soon under control. Chief Wagner was early on the scene and assumed supervision of the work of the firemen.

Little alarm was manifested by the guests, only few of whom were awake wh the fire was discovered. Mr. Myers and other employes called and assured them that there was no danger. In many of the rooms there was evidence of hurried dressing, but there were no signs of a panic.

SCHOOL RECEIVER NAMED.

The International Correspondence University, 1413 H street, Washington, is not making good, the District Supreme Court is informed in a petition presented yesterday asking a decree of dissolution of its corporate existence. Justice Barnard appointed Edwin C. Dutton receiver.

The petition was filed by James R. Caton, Alfred B. Leet, A. B. Duvall, B. A. Leavell, Claude Miller, Martin A. Knapp, William H. Saunders, and J. Randall Caton, Jr., trustees.

The university was incorporated in 1904, with a capital stock of $1,000,000. The assets, according to the petition, consist of furniture valued at $685, and accounts receivable estimated at about $5,000.

ELKS TO BURY REPPERT.

Dead Soldier Was Past Exalted Ruler of Columbus, Ohio, Lodge.

Colonel William E. Reppert, superintendent of the United States National Cemetery in this city, whose death occurred yesterday afternoon, will be buried with the full honors of the Elks' lodge, on account of his prominence as a member of that order. Colonel Reppert was one of the founders of Columbus, Ohio lodge, No. 37, having been associated with Al. G. Field, the famous minstrel, in the organization of the Elks in that city. He was past exalted ruler of Columbus lodge and a life member. The funeral will take place Thursday at 11 o'clock and interment will take place in Arlington cemetery. Six past exalted rulers of Alexandria lodge of Elks will constitute the pallbearers, and services will be conducted by Exalted Ruler, Jas. W. Bales, and officers of the lodge.

Colonel Reppert was sick less than a week and his death was the result of heart failure. He is survived by a widow and three daughters, Mrs. Wm. Snead, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Wm. Stevens, of Baltimore, Md.; and Mrs. Harry D. Kirk, of this city.

Colonel Reppert was 69 years old and was a native of Pittsburgh. During the war he served with the 17th Pennsylvania cavalry. For several years he was general passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, with headquarters in Columbus. He was transferred to Alexandria several years ago from Culpeper, where he had charge of the National Cemetery in that city.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT.

Lower Board Will Consider Report of Schools And Finance Committee on Proposed School Building.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council will be held tonight. The volume of business to presented will, it is thought, be small.

The lower board will be called upon to consider the report of the joint committee on schools and finance, dopted by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting in July. The report, it will be remembered, provides for an appropriation of $28,000 for the purpose of erecting a new high school building at some other point in Alexandria save on the lot on the northwest corner of Cameron and West streets, recently acquired by the city.

Should the Common Council concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen, Council will probably adjourn for the remainder of the summer. It has, however, been declared by some members of the lower board that they will not vote for a recess until the school proposition shall have been definitely settled. It remains to be seen what disposition will be made of the report by the lower board, some of whom it is known are in favor of building the new school house upon the lot purchased for that purpose.

Bids for the improvement of Payne street, from Queen to Cameron, Alfred street from Queen to Princess and Fairfax street from Duke to Wilkes will be opened this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by the street committee of city council The committee did not meet last night.

CURRENCY IN QUESTION.

Representative Glass Defends the Administration Measure.

Washington, Aug. 12—A vigorous defense of the Administration currency bill by Representative Carter Glass, one of its authors, was received with general applause and support in the first session yesterday of the caucus of Democratic members of the House, before which the measure is to be worked over and its fate determined.

Representative Glass' speech followed an unsuccesful attempt by the "insurgent" Democrats of the Bunking and Currency Committee to have the caucus thrown open to the public. Led by Representatives Neely, of Kansas, and Ragsdale, of South Carolina, members of the committee; Representative Henry, of Texas, and others, the advocates of open caucus mustered 63 votes against 119.

The currency bill was laid before the caucus by Representative Glass, as chairman of the committee, with the endorsement of 11 Democratic members. Representatives Neely and Ragsdale and Representative Eagle, of Texas, withheld their approval. Mr. Glass' speech in explanation of the bill, which began as a general statement of the purposes and hopes of its framers, was turned into an emphatic defense of the measure when the "insurgents" insisted that it should make provision for the issuance of currency upon warehouse receipts for corn, wheat and cotton.

Speculation would receive the active support of the Government, he declared, if those amendments were put into the bill. The legitimate demands of farming communities, he said, for money to carry on ordinary farming and commercial operations were fully covered by the measure, and to make warehouse receipts for cotton or grain a legal security for the issuance of the proposed new treasury notes would furnish the means by which speculators could hold the cotton and grain crops in storage for an indefinite period.

Friends of the administration bill, as the result of yesterday's opening session, predicted that the caucus would approve the measure with few changes.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Being struck in the face with a fist and thrown back across the kitchen table and choked are two of the reasons why Jennie P. Chapple wants a divorce from James W. Chapple, a bookkkeeper for a Washington commission mechant. Allegations that her husband subjects her to these and other acts of cruelty are made in her bill filed yesterday in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Chapple states in her bill that they were married in Alexandria, Va., on November 19, 1907, and that they have no children.

CONGRESS TO RUSH THE TARIFF BILL

Senate Session Will Begin at 11 O'Clock in Future.

AGREEMENT REACHED

Senator Bristow Predicts Elimination of Sugar Beet Growers and Higher Prices of Sugar.

Washington, Aug. 12.— Signs of progress on the tariff bill are apparent in the fact that an agreement has been reached among the Senate leaders to have the daily sessions begin at 11 o'clock instead of noon.

Yesterday was taken up with vain efforts to make headway. This got on the nerves of Senator Simmons and other leaders, and the 11 o'clock agreement was arraigned. With 11 o'clock sessions there is little question that progress will be more rapid.

Meanwhile, negotiations are under way looking to the fixing of a day to vote on the bill.

The only paragraph agreed to yesterday was one putting cast iron pipes on the free list.

Senator Bristow introduced amendments fixing a duty of 1 cent a pound on sugar. Senator Poindexter introduced an amendment for a tariff commission of five, to be named by the President.

In submitting his sugar amendments Senator Bristow gave warning that free sugar would eliminate the grower of sugar beets and put the sugar market under complete control of the refiners. Raise in the price of sugar, he said, would result.

SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.

Additions to Funds to Pay Storm's Damage at Hospital.

The appeal for funds for the purpose of paying the expense incident to the repairs at the Alexandria Hospital caused by the storm of July 30th, is meeting with some encouragement, three subscriptions amounting to $36, having been received yesterday. It is earnestly hoped that there will be a hearty response in the next few days.

The following letter subscribing $10 has been received by the Gazette:

"I was sorry to read in your Saturday issue that the Alexandria Hospital had suffered extensive damage by the recent severe wind storm, necessitating the immediate expenditure of a considerable sum for repairs just at the time when the management is taxed to the utmost in caring for the sick.

"It is my understanding that a large part of the work done by this excellent institution is free, that the management must depend on voluntary contributions and the revenue they receive from the pay patients, which is extremely limited by lack of room, and this unexpected expense adds a burden to the management which our good citiens should help rid them of.

I enclose a contribution for this purpose, and request that you use your paper's influenc in urging our people of every denomination, color and creed, to extend a helping hand to lift this burden from our Hospital, whose good work goes on day in and day out in ministering to the sick of every class and staion.

"PROGRESSIVE."

DEATH OF MRS. BURROUGHS.

Mrs. Mary A. Burroughs, the wife of Thomas Burroughs, died at the residence of her son-in-law, 228 south Washington street today after a long illness. Notice of funeral later.

Miss Jillian Keller, of this city, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Marshall Miller, in Harrisonburg.

Miss Verna Bittle is visting friends in Toledo, Ohio.

Miss Katherine Turnbull, of Washington, who has been visiting Miss Catherine E. Deahl, has returned home.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A gold watch, the original cost of which was $100, belonging to Luther Beard, was stolen fom the barracks at Fort Myer last month. The timepiece was brought to this city and pawned. The owner has reported the theft to United States Commissioner Garnett.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles A. Devers, whose death occurred yesterday morning, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, 1123 Duke Street. Interment will be made in Bethel cemetery.

Several hundred Alexandria members of the Holy Name Society are expected to join in the Holy Name parade to be held in Baltimore, Sunday, October 5th. They will be led by the Holy Name Society Band.

The fire committee of the City Council met last night and recommended the purchase of a new pair of horses for the Relief Hook and Ladder Truck Company.

KEPT WEDDING QUIET.

Michael T. Dwyer Figures in Matrimonial Episide.

Michael T. Dwyer, who for the past fifteen years has cronicled the happenings of Alexandria for several Washington papers and who during that time has made a reputation for himself as a newspaper man of rare ability has himself sprung in the lime light and yesterday figured in an exclusive story in the Washington Times. The Times says:

"Consummate care in the keeping of an elopement or clandestine marriage from becoming the subject of gossip of one's friends, no matter how far away from said friends, the ceremony is performed, involves, as every newspaper man knows, the "gagging" of inquisitive and enterprising reporters who loiter in proximity to the marriage license office.

"Daniel O'Connell assistant city editor of the Washington Star, knows the wisdom of this "gagging." And why shouldn't he. Has he not been gagged by numerous of the Cupid-stricken to keep their license-getting out of the papers? Certainly. So when he determined to take as his bride Miss Marion Snieder early on morning of July 31, he dallied in the vicinity of one Michael Dwyer, who, as representative of Washington newspaper at Alexandria, has access to the marriage license blotter of that place.

"Dwyer, you're a good fellow and I like you," sad the man who anticipated entering by a secret passage the ranks of the married. "In fact, a young lady who is soon to become Mrs. O'Connell regards you as a person capable of reticence."

"Then after leading up to the "leading question," O'Connell confided to Dwyer that he would like him to be bi best man. Dwyer assented and, of course, as one in the secert his pen was tied. He could not as a gentleman regard this confidence lightly. Someone else told . Mr. and Mrs. O'Conell are living in a cozy little flat at the Vivian apartments in G street northwest."

STUCK IN THE MUD.

Young Women in Boat Spend Several Hours on the Maryland Flats.

About seven o'lock yesterday evening people on the river front saw a gilling skiff on the Maryland flats opposite the shipyrd. The boat was seen to contain two persons, and it was supposed the occupants had been fishing or picknicking and were on their way home. But as the boat remained stationary some time, several persons on the hills overlooking the river turned field glasses upon it when they saw it contained two young women and that their boat had stuck in the mud. The young women were standing in the boat waving their hands frantically for help.

It was about dusk an dthe tide still being on the ebb, there was a likelihood of the occupants of the boat, being compelled to spend several hours on the flats before the tide rose sufficiently high to float them away.

About dark parties on the opposite shore saw the young women and after considerable difficulty ,they succeeded in getting the boat into the swash channel on the Maryland side of the river and the boat and occupants were brought ashore.

SITUATION SAID TO BE IMPROVING

Lind Will Proceed Cautiously in His Mission to Mexico.

TO TALK OVER MATTER

Washington Newspaper Correspondent Released—Charged With Interfering With Messages.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Having successfully passed through the crises of getting Former Governor John Lind into Mexico City without an attack on him by excitable Mexicans, the Administration here is resting on its oars, determined from now on not to force things. Another crisis is not desired.

For that reason ii is believed that Mr. Lind will proceed very cautiously in the work for which he was sent to Mexico.

Desirous of proving to the Mexicans that he is not in the capital in the capacity of an envoy bringing terms to Huerta, the President's representative will leave it to Charge d' Affaires O'Shaunghnessy to conduct all negotiations, at least for the present.

It is expected that the latter will call on Frederico Gamboa the new ministry of foreign affairs, very shortly, and carefully explain that Lind is in Mexico with no hostile expressions from this government. When the time comes to present this government's "suggestions" they will be laid before the minister by Mr. O'Shaughnessy, but there will be no hurry.

As Washington sees it, the situation is greatly improved, and would continue to improve providing the jingo newspapers, denounced as being responsible for an organized effort to precipitate war, can be exposed. An attempt at exposure is likely, judging from expressions said to have been dropped by the President to his callers. The best that can be hoped for as the result of the first conference between O'Shaughnessy and Gamboa is the establishment of friendly relations. It will open the way for friendly negotiations later. And it may also make it possible for Lind and Gamboa, and even Huerta himself, to meet later for a personal talk.

Mexico City, via Galveston Aug. 12. Marvin Ferree, the Washington Times' special correspondent, arrested Sunday, was released today upon the understanding that he sails for New York Wednesday.

Ferree's release follows inquiries made by Secretary of State Bryan as to the reason for his arrest. Mr. Bryan ascertained that Ferree was a citizen of Mexico, and had been arrested on the charge of "interference with wireless messages."

NEW STORE PROSPERING.

A steady flow of customers, who express satisfaction with their purchases, is good evidence that the plans of F. B. Howard & Bros., who opened a new butter, egg and cheese store at 822 King street, last week have not gone wrong. The best goods that can be purchased, kept in the most sanitary condition and sold at the lowest market quotations for cash is the plan upon which this firm operates. They attribute a considerable part of their sucess to their advertising in the Gaette, which goes into practically every home in Alexandria, that uses the kind of goods the firm handles. Readers of the Gazette watch the advertising columns to take advantage of the bargains which are offered. Gazette advertising, in this way, pays both the buyer and the seller.

FLEW OVER ALEXANDRIA

C. Murvin Wood Gives People of This City An Exbitition in An Aeroplane

About half-past six o'clock yesterday evening many Alexandrians had their attention attracted by an aeroplane which appeared high in the air over the southeastern section of the city. In a few seconds hundreds were watching the interesting performance of C. Murvin Wood, who was flying a Moisant aeroplane, "Bluebird." Many people hereabout had never before witnessed an airship performance, and as the aviator glided high in the air over the heads the interest was intense. After encircling the city at a high altitude, the aeronaut headed his aeroplane towards Washington and a few minutes later became a mere speck in the heavens.

Mr. Wood made two flights from Fort Myer, in which he visited Washington, Alexandria and several contiguous places.

Mr. Wood had announced that he would circle the Washington monument about 5:30 o'clock. Several thousand persons were gathered in the Ellipse, the Monument grounds, and Potomac Park at that time. Many more were stationed on tops of buildings.

Four minutes before the time set Mr. Wood arose from the drill grounds at Fort Myer. Before he had reached an altitude of 500 feet he was visible from the base of the monument. He circled the neighborhood of Fort Myer three times, climbing steadily before he swerved, when, on the last circle he reached the Potomac river and followed its course as far as Alexandria.

Mr. Wood, upon reaching Alexandria, was flying at an altitude of about 4,000 feet. As he neared the monument he lowered his monoplane until it was within 2,500 feet of the ground. The machine, which is much faster than any that has been seen hereabouts recently, had passed the monument in making a large circle and was half a mile to the north almost before spectators were aware that they were watching the best part of the flight.

Mr. Wood made straight for Virginia, after circling somewhat to the north, and maintained a speed close to seventy miles an hour. He flew far over into Virginia and back until he was within a mile of Fort Myer. Then he started a long, sharp descent. So quickly did the monoplane go down that it was reported he had met with an accident. But when the machine got between Washington and the sun it was seen that he was merely bound for the earth at a rather sharp angle. The flight lasted twenty two minutes, during which Mr. Wood made about thirty miles.

After his descent Mr. Wood started another flight of nineteen minutes, on which he visited Alexandria, Mount Vernon and Fairfax Courthouse.

On both of the flights Mr. Wood averaged more than sixty miles an hour. He estimated when he had finished the flights, that he had covered about fifty miles.

Several flights at Fort Myer are scheduled for today.

FINED $20 FOR ASSAULT

Negro From Orange County Alleged to Have Drawn Pistol on Another Darkey

Most of the time of the Police Court this morning was consumed in the investigation of the case of John Green, colored, who, it was alleged, drew a pistol and threatened to shoot Ed Smith, colored, during a quarrel in the northwestern section of the city last Saturday morning. Green was represented by Robinson Moncure. Officers Bell and Reed testified to finding .38 calibre cartridges upon the person of Green; colored people who were present during the difficulty said they saw Green reach for what they supposed was a weapon, and others left the scene, for fearing personal injury.

Green denied drawing the pistol, and said he had been using the cartridges found on him in shooting frogs.

The accused was fined $20 for assault. Green came to Alexandria from Orange county where he acknowledges he served a term in jail for being disorderly and was one of the prisoners who made their escape some time ago.

A white man, charged with assault, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

A resident of the First ward, charged with keeping a vicious dog, was dismissed upon agreeing to have the animal killed.

AUCTION SALE AT MT. IDA.

Number of Beautiful Lots to be Sold On Next Monday.

A number of valuable lots at Mt. Ida, the beautiful suburb, between Alexandria and Washington, will be sold at public auction on next Monday morning, commencing at 10:30 o'clock. The lots have been placed in the hands of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company, by James S. Groves, president of the company, and will be disposed of regardless of their value.

The Atlantic Coast Realty Company has already conducted two very successful sales in Alexandria. They are represented by Messrs. K. W. Cobb and T. R. Vick, who arrived here today to complete the arrangements. These two young men are experienced real estate agents and expect to have a large crowd present when the sale commences. The auctioneering will be done by the Burton Bros., and the All Star Brass Band of the Realty Company will be present. A number of valuable prizes will be given away.

Mt. Ida has many advantages which should make it appeal to residents of Alexandria. Its location is ideal as over 100 electric trains pass through the property daily. Substantial improvements have been made and there is a fine future to the subdivision.

Mrs. A. D. Brockett is visiting relatives in Montreal, Canada.

Mrs. Charles T. Lindsay Miss Grigg and Miss V. Ada Grigg are at Mt. Lake Park. Dr. Lindsay who is in Denver attending the Grand Comandery of Knights Templar, U .S. A., will later join the family at the Park for the remainder of the summer.

MOUNT IDA

Mount Ida is by far the handsomest sub-division on the Washington Utility lines, between Alexandria and Washington. Its natural advantages cannot be purchased. Its superb beauty makes it alone the most desirable place to live in this section. Having been modernized with electricity conveniences now presents a splendid outlook for a fashionable residential section.

Prices on Mt. Ida lots will remain as they have been in the past until July 1st, at which time all prices will advance 10 per cent. Take advantage of this opportunity and purchase now.

The same applies to Wellington it being the handsomest property between Alexandria and Mt. Vernon. For further particulars see

The New Fall Skirts

Advance fall styles in Women's Skirts are being shown by us in an unusually complete display in the most exclusive foreign and domestic cloths. Conforming with the accepted style tendencies, there is much newness in their designing and making. Separate skirts for the early autumn show many distinct innovations in materials and style.

New Scotch Plaids made in triple flounce effect, are decidedly modish; many draped models, giving fullness across the hips and draping gracefully in various styles, affording opportunity for individualizing one's selections, are to be had in numerous fancy weaves and novelty cloths. Ultra-stylish models that are slashed on one side, in front, or in back, that may be worn open or closed.

This advance showing gives promise of a rich variety in the newest effects for the fall and Winter of 1913. Prices range $6.75 to $15.00.

IRGINIA REPUBLICANS.

atters And Bull Moosers May Both Have Tickets.

ke, Va., Aug. 12.—Forty-five ers, half of them proxies, of State Repulican Committee, met Hotel Roanoke Saturday night. vah H. Martin, of Norfolk, was mporary chairman in the absence of hairman Bascom Slemp. The com- ittee, after some discussion on the estion of placing a full ticket in e field next fall, finally decided to fer the matter to the State execu- ve committee and give them the po- er to act.

The executive committee is com- sed of about fifteen members. hile neither the time nor place for e meeting of the executive commit- e has been named, it is thought that will meet either in Lynchburg or anoke the latter part of the com- g week.

From all indications the State com- ittee is almost unanimously in fav- of putting a ticket in the field. owever, it will be left to the execu- ve committee for final decision.

The other faction in the party—the ull Moosers—threaten to put a ate ticket of its own before the ters.

KILLED HER HUSBAND.

rs. Grubb Too Ill to Attend Funeral. Remains Are Carried to Her Door .

Spencer, N. C., Aug. 12.—A crowd stimated at 500 people attended the uneral of H. Clay Grubb, who was illed Sunday at his home near ere by his wife, Mrs. Emma F. rubb, who was promptly exonerated y the coroner's jury on the ground of elf-defense.

On account of injuries inflicted by er husband immediately preceding he killing, Mrs. Grubb was unable o leave her room to attend the burial. The body was taken to the door and he viewed the remains before it was aken to the grave. Her condition is egarded as precarious.

According to reports which have eached New York, instead of pre- enting arms when ordered to do so, he military escort to the body of ancrede Auguste, late President of Hayti, aimed their rifles at the cas- et and riddled it with bullets. The hooting occurred in the Cathedral of t. Mary at the conclusion of a fun- ral service of great solemnity and n the presence of hundreds of per- ons. The casket occupied a place in he center aisle and the twenty-four oldiers stood in two lines on each ide. At the blessing they were or- ered to present arms. Instead they ired several rounds into the body. The church was thrown into an up- oar and the funeral throng fled in anic.

VIRGINIA GETS MANY JOBS.

President Selects Noted Men of This State to Fill ositions of Honor.

Washington, Aug 12.—That the ork of installing democrats in fede- al offices in place of the republican ffices in place of the Republicans is roceeding at a merry clip, and that atronage is being rapidly distributed among the faithful by the present ad- inistration is shown by the nomina- ions which havebeen sent to the Sen- te. These nominations number about ,000, about 2,000 of which are post- masters.

Virginia ranks seventeenth among he states in number of federal ap- ointments which have been given er. Thirty-nine jobs, according to he official record, have fallen to the ons of the president's native state. Texas leads with 167, with Iowa fol- owing with 109, with Illinois close ehind with 100.

FALL ENDS IN DEATH.

Eulah Lewis Fatally Injured When he Faints at Choir Practice.

Danville, Va., Agg. 12.—The funeral of Eulah Lewis, who died suddenly on Thursday night while attending a choir practice, took place at the Lee street Baptist yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lewis, who was 28 years old, and married, was attending a choir practice in the Lee Street Church when he suddenly fell to the floor in a faint He was removed to his home where a physician succeeded in reviving him in a short while. He sat up for two hours and was able to laugh good humoredly at the incident. Late in the night, however, Mr. Lewis again lapsed into unconsciousness, and died early Friday morning. His death is attributed to a ruptured blood vessel in the head which he struck when he fell in the church.

WAYLAID AND MURDERED.

Victim of Family Feud—Two Suspects Hiding in Hills.

Luray, Va., Aug. 12.—Oswald Gray, 24 years old, son of R. O. Gray, was waylaid and stabbed to death in the Blue Ridge in this county Friday night. Thomas and "Bug" Alger are accused of having committed the murder. Gray, accompanied by a young woman, was returning from preaching, when he is alleged to have been knocked down, severely beaten and cut through the abdomen so badly that death ensued in a few hours.

The murder is said to have had its origin from old grudge between the Gray and Alger families. The man who was killed was unmarried, Alger boys are about 20 and 22 years old.

The Alger boys have left the county or are hiding in the Blue Ridge.

FIGHT AFTER AUTO CRASH.

Woman Hurt in Collision With Car Full of Soldiers.

Winchester, Va., Aug. 12.—Two automobiles, one driven by Abe Miller, of Martinsburg, W. Va., and the other by a Winchester chauffeur, while making 45 miles an hour, it is said, crashed and were practically demolished early Sunday near Clearbrook, this country.

The occupants were thrown out into the road, with the exception of Edna Easby, a young white woman of Martinsburg, who landed on a pile of lumber, breaking several ribs and receiving cuts, bruises and internal injuries.

Five persons occupied Miller's car, while the other was crowded with United States cavalrymen returning here from a jaunt to Martinsburg.

Miss Easby was rushed to Winchester Memorial Hospital. Miller's party returned here with the soldiers and a street fight ensued, which was broken up by policemen, after a revolver had been fired.

DEATH OF AN EDUCATOR.

Dr. Richard McIllwaine Ends Long Life of Usefulness.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 12—Rev. Richard McIllwaine, D. D., former president of Hampden-Sydney College, member of the Constitutional Convention and Presbyterian minister, died Sunday at the home of his son-in-law, Dr. W. W. Dunn, 608 West Grace street, in the 79th year of his age.

Dr. McIllwaine is well known throughout Virginia as pastor of Presbyterian churches in Amelia county, Farmville and Lynchburg; as chaplain in the Confederate States Army; as president of Hampden-Sydney College, and as writer, educator and member of the Constitutional Convention.

He was born in Petersburg, May 20, 1834.

DIES FROM PISTOL SHOT.

Alleged Assailants Indicted for Assault and Battery.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 12. — The grand jury of Amherst county returned an indictment for assault and battery yesterday against Bascomb Williams and John Beard, alleged assailants of David Cooper, who died here yesterday from a pistol shot wound received three weeks ago in Amherst county.

Cooper's spinal cord was severed by a shot which he is said to have received in a rough-and-tumble row with Beard and Williams. When Commonwealth Attorney Evans was notified of Cooper's death he began preparation of another indictment for murder, which will be submitted to the grand jury tomorrow.

NEXT LEGISLATURE.

Old Men Will be in Minority in Lower Branch Next Session.

Richmond, Aug. 12. —So far there are twenty-six "old" men chosen for the next House of Delegates, and there are eleven 'come-backs"—meaning men who have served before and who had been returned after one or more sessions from that body.

This makes a total of thirty-seven on which the "old men" will seek to organize the body and proceed with business. Sixty-three "new" men will have to be reckoned with, but in that number there are to be considered the ten or more Republicans, leaving about 53 "new" men to be dealt with.

The question arises, Will the old men be able to take control of things and direct the "new" men in the paths they should follow, or will the new men determine to take things in their own hands and proceed to organize the body for themselves? That is the question which the old men are pondering. The fact that a majority of the House will be new material is puzzling. True, there may be some who will train with the old men, but it remains to be seen if the new members will take charge and elect the Speaker and name themselves for committees and let the old men shift for themselves.

The Truth About Electric Cooking
For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.
In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.
In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

REASONS FOR SMALL VOTE.

The small vote cast last Tuesday has again raised a doubt in the minds of some of the Virginia leaders that too many political campaigns, too many primaries and too many elections are held in the Old Dominion.

The opinion is expressed that, should the Virginia voter be given an off-year during which politics are tabooed, a more complete expression of the people of the state can be obtained in the primaries and in the elections.

Congressman James Hay, of the Seventh district, is one of those who thinks the state offices should be elected the same year the president of the United States is voted for and the state legislature named when congressmen are nominated and elected. This would combine the state and presidential elections.

Congressman E. E. Holland, of the Norfolk district, assented to Mr. Hay's views.

As the situation now stands from one to three primaries or mass-meetings and from one to two general elections are held in the state every year. In the course of four years, under Virginia's present system of electing municipal, county, state and federal officers, the voters are asked to march to the polls fourteen times, or an average of three and a half times a year.

For an illustration take the four-year period beginning with January, 1912, and ending December, 1915.

Year 1912—(1) Primary in cities to nominate candidates for mayor and city council; (2) primary or mass-meeting to name delegates to state convention, which elected delegates to national conventions; (3) primary to nominate candidates for congress; (4) election in June in cities to elect mayor and city council; (5) election in November for president, candidates for congress. Total, three primaries and two general elections

Year 1913—(1) Primary in cities to nominate candidates for city officers. In some cities these are held when the state primary is held, but, as a rule, however, they are not. (2) State primary to nominate candidates for State officers and house of delegates. (3) General election in November. Total, two primaries and one election.

In Alexandria there was an additional primary for the House of Delegates, and an additional general election in September for city officers.

Year 1914—(1) Primary in cities to nominate council ticket. (2) Council election in cities in June. (3) Congressional primaries in August or thereabouts. (4) Congressional election in November. Total, two primaries and two elections in cities and one each in counties.

Year 1915—(1) Primaries in counties and cities to name candidates for house of delegates and state Senate, and county officers. (2) Election in November.

It is held that all these primaries and elections can be combined so as to have one primary and one general elction every two years.

"THE STREET THAT IS CALLED STRAIGHT."

A cotemporary today publishes picture which represents a serpentine path to Wall street over which black clouds are about to form. The path is beset with boulders. Under the picture appears the following extract from Governor Sulzer's inaugural address:

I am free, without entanglements and will remain free. No influence controls me but the dictates of my conscience and my determination to do my duty day in and day out as I see the right regardless of consequences. In the future I will walk in the street called straight.

Whatever I do as Governor will be open and above board. I shall confide in the people.

Governor Sulzer is not the only man who has strayed into the highway leading to the Temple of Mammon. He is one of teh many unfortunate persons who are now derelicts on the sea of speculation. Men have from time immemorial mounted this unsubstantial ladder. Some have won at the outset, but capricious fortune has eventually turned her back when the bubble has burst and shattered golden dreams.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Denies His Guilt And Was Not Identified by Young Woman.

Laurens, S. C., Aug. 12.—Richard Puckett, a young negro, charged with attacking a young woman near here yesterday, was taken from the jail here at 1:30 o'clock this morning by a mob estimated to number 2,000 men and hanged to a beam of a railway trestle near the Laurens depot. Several hundred bullets were then fired into his body, and the mob dispersed leaving the body hanging. Although Sheriff Owings is quoted as saying the negro confessed to him, Puckett made a denial of his guilt just before he was strung by the mob.

Puckett was charged with attacking a young woman, who was driving in a buggy along a lonely road near here yesterday morning. It was alleged he dragged her from the buggy but fled when she called to her two brothers, who were following her in another buggy. Laurens officers arrested Puckett soon after they had begun the search, but the young woman who had been attacked failed to identify him. Bloodhounds, it is said, were then used in an effort to fasten guilt on him.

The mob overpowered the sheriff and deputies, breaking down a door of the jail and one of the steel cages where Puckett was confined. The lynching did not take place until several hours after the rest of the crowd began to assemble at the jail.

WOMAN TELLS OF MURDER

Sweetheart of One of the Men Under Arrest Declares Companion Killed Chicago Jeweler.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Formal charges of murder were entered yesterday by the police against John Faith and Charles Snyder, who are accused of killing Joseph H. Logue, an aged diamond broker, in his office here last December.

"We have the murderer of Logue," declared Assistant State's Attorney Johnson today.

The two men were arrested a few days ago on information said to have been given to the police by May McMullin, Faith's sweetheart. The woman said that Faith knew that Logue was to be murdered several days before the crime was committed. She persuaded Faith, according to her story, to keep away from Snyder and to take no part in the affair. After the murder, she said, Snyder told Faith that he "did the job" and that he got several diamonds and other jewelry.

"Snyder told Johnny," declared the woman, "that when he went into Logue's office he said to the jeweler that he had some stones to sell. Logue immediately stepped over to the window and drew the curtain. When he turned about he was covered with Snyder's pistol. 'I am a poor man. Why did you pick me out?' Logue asked. He was becoming excited, so Snyder, fearing an outcry, fired. He also plunged his knife into the jeweler's body. Then he rifled the safe.

"It occurred to him that he was leaving things so that if Logue ever recovered he would be recognized. He therefore took a bottle of acid from his pocket and threw its contents into the victim's eyes. Then he walked out of the office and mingled with the crowd."

The cases of Faith and Snyder were continued to August 19 and both men were held without bail.

CHANGE OF CHARGE.

Men Indicted for Assault Must Face Murder Trial.

Amherst Courthouse, Va., Aug. 12.—The grand jury in Amherst circuit court yesterday morning returned indictments against Bascomb Williams and John Beard on the charge of assault and battery in connection with the trouble near Sandidges three weeks ago, which resulted yesterday in the death of David Cooper, the Baltimore junk dealer. At the time the grand jury met the fact that Cooper had died in Lynchburg Sunday was not known, but as soon as Commonwealth's Attorney Otto L. Evans learned that Cooper had died in Lynchburg, he began the preparation of another indictment against Williams and Beard, in which it will be necessary to charge them with the murder of the Baltimorean. This will be considered by the grand jury tomorrow morning.

SUICIDE WHEN BABY DIES.

Ex-Policeman Takes Poison Soon After Funeral.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 12.—Leaving the grave of his year-old daughter, Eleanor, Mount Moriah Cemetery, yesterday, following the funeral services, Joseph Blyler, 28 years old, an ex-policeman, committed suicide in an alley by drinking poison. Grief over the death of the baby and his inability to retain a steady position, are thought to have been the causes for his action.

Court of Appeals.

The State Supreme Court yesterday in Richmond refused the appeal of J. E. Markham against the Lynchburg Traction and Light Company, brought up from the circuit court of Lynchburg. Mr. Markham was injured by a car of the company and sued for damages, claiming that he was injured through negligence. The Circuit Court found against him; and the higher court refused to find any merit in the grounds of his appeal.

The court also refused a writ of error in the case of Caroline J. Leake, guardian of Morris S. Leake, infant, which was appealed from the circuit court of Hanover county. The suit involved a tract of land in Hanover county which was left young Leake in his father's will and which has been in litigation for some time.

PRAYER'S QUICK REPLY.

Divine Asks That Sinners be Driven in, and They Are.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 12.JDelivering an invocation at an opening service of the Christian Missionary Alliance, at Rocky Springs Park, just before Sunday's furious storm, Rev. John Coxe, of Wilmington, Del., prayed:

"Oh, Lord, make the lightning flash and the rainpour until all the people in this big amusement park shall be driven into the tabernacle and brought to God."

Five minutes later many were driven into the building just that way.

Good Reason for His Enthusiasm.

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea, and other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all druggists.

WOMAN'S BODY IN MARSH.

All Marks of Identity Removed, And Police Will Try Finger-Print Trail

New York, Aug. 12.—Many New York employment agencies take the finger prints of their applicants for work. Upon this practice rested yesterday the hope of the Central Office to identify the city's latest murder mystery victim, a comely young woman, whose mutilated body, still warm, was found at midnight Sunday in a marsh near Spuyten Duyvil creek.

Every identifying mark on her clothes had been effacted. Experts from police headquarters made imprints from her fingers at the morgue. Armed with these the detectives are searching the finger prints of employment agencies on the theory that she might have been a domestic servant. A stained jacknife and a shoemaker's last near the body are believed to have been used by her assailant to commit the murder with and furnished the only clues discovered so far.

The young woman's throat had been cut from ear to ear, her hands were badly lacerated and torn clothes and foot prints in the vicinity bore evidence that she had struggled vainly with one or more assailants.

A box containing three hair pins was found in a tuft of grass, and near the box was the tuft of hair. It was pulled, the police believe, from the moustache of the murderer.

The victim was about 30 years old, had chestnut brown hair, regular features and weighed about 140 pounds. She was 5 feet 5 inches tall and neatly clad in a white shirt waist, a black skirt, black stockings and tan shoes.

VIRGINIA SENATOR WEDS.

Mr. George L. Fletcher Takes Miss Moore as Bride.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 12. — Miss Frank Moore and Mr. George Latham Fletcher, both of Warrenton, Va., were married yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walton Cook, of Belvieu avenue. The house was tastefully decorated, yellow predominating in drawing room and white and green in the dining room. Rev. Charles E. Shaw, assistant rector of the Protestant Episcopal Cathedral, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a smart going-away gown, and carried a cluster of lilies of the valley and orchids. Her only attendant was little Miss Georgie Latham, as flower girl. Mr. T. N. Fletcher, Jr., acted as his brother's best man. After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher left for a northern trip.

Mrs. Fletcher is the daughter of the late Marshall Frank Moore, former member of Congress and later Governor of Washington Ter. and Mrs. Fannie Van Trump Moore. She is also a sister of Mr. Thomas Moore, who has since early life been in the United States consular service.

Mr. Fletcher is a son of Mr. Thadeus Norris Fletcher and of the late Mrs. Georgie Latham Fletcher. He is State Senator from Loudoun and Fauquier counties and a prominent member of the Warrenton bar.

He recently completed a bungalow of attractive type near Warrenton, where Senator and Mrs. Fletcher will make their home upon their return to Warrenton.

ANGELL DECLINES HONOR.

Could Not Consider Republican Gubernatorial Nomination.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 12.—R. H. Angell, of this city, whom Secretary Summers, of the Republican State committee, said would probably be the choice of the Republicans to head the ticket proposed to be put forward in this state this fall, declines to serve. He says:

"I appreciate much the very nice compliment from my friend, Lou Summers, in suggesting the possibility of my nomination as the Republican candidate for governor of Virginia. At the same time those of my friends locally who know the many interests that I have here, which engage every spare moment of time available, will agree that it would be a great injustice to myself to consider accepting the nomination under any circumstances. I regret that this is true, not because I would consider accepting the nomination under any circumstances. I regret that this is true, not because I think my election would be possible, but because of the honor I would consider it, and from the further fact that I have reason to expect hearty support to my party throughout the State I must be loyal to my own judgment in the matter, and I feel that every spare moment of time is justly due to my family and the city of Roanoke."

CHURCH SPLITS OVER SNUFF.

Members Withdraw Because Rules Forbid Use of Tobacco.

Asheville N. C., Aug. 12.—Because the rules of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, at Forest City, N. C., forbid the "dipping" of snuff, the chewing or smoking of tobacco, or the wearing of jewelry, all the members with the exception of six deacons, have withdrawn and have organized another church following a revival held by Rev. Henry Clay Sisk and Rev. W. C. Stafford, of Spartanburg, S. C.

The new church will be known as the Wesleyan Missionary Church and is already assured of 265 members who withdrew from the old church. For some time the members of the old church have been protesting against the strictness of the rules and some who desired to 'dip" snuff or smoke, expressed their intention of withdrawing unless the rules were made less stringent.

When the evangelists came along and insisted that such acts were no bar to entering the Kingdom of Heaven, the members of the church made a general exodus and left the Wesleyan Methodists with only six deacons and members.

MUST COOK HIS OWN MEALS.

Judge Makes Supperless Male Who Halted Wife's Stump Speech Promise Never Again.

New York, Aug. 12.—"This is a great day for woman suffrage," said a woman wearing a yellow rosettee, as she marched out of New Jersey Avenue Court, East New York, Friday. "Husbands will know their places from now on. We have won a great victory."

Lawrence Rupp, middle-aged and undersized, had just been metaphorically pulverized by Magistrate McGuire, because he wanted his wife to stop stump speaking Thursday night long enough to get his supper and put her five children to bed. He had waited at his home supperless, until 9 o'clock. Then he went out and found his wife Maria, making a soap box speech for woman's sovereignty.

"Mariar, come home and put the kids to bed and get me something to eat," said the hungry husband.

The crowd laughed, the speech was spoiled and Mrs. Rupp had her husband arrested.

Yesterday morning in Court, Rupp looking as if he expected to be electrocuted, took the stand and told his supperless story.

"I find you guilty on your own statement," said the Court," who further elucidated that Rupp had not ordered his supper in the right way. Then the suffragettes applauded vigorously.

"Are you sorry?" demanded the judge, when the little man was arraigned for sentence.

"Y-y-yes," faltered Rupp.

"Are you very sorry?"

"Oh, yes," fervently responded Rupp.

"Will you ever do it again?"

"Never! I swear it!" replied Rupp. holding up his right hand.

Mrs. Rupp and her backers filed out one door, and Mr. Rupp, having promised never to want his supper again, went out another door.
